DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-72 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding independent claims 1, 4, 27, and 30, the prior art (e.g. U.S. Patent No. 6,330,976 to Dymetman et al., U.S. Patent No. 5,486,686 to Zdybel, Jr. et al., and U.S. Patent No. 6,101,532 to Horibe et al.) teaches printing, as a paper, data-entry form, encoded data such that the user may apply a sensing device to the paper in order execute various computer functions indicated by the encoded data. Moreover, the prior art teaches that such encoded paper forms may be used for various applications, including email conferencing, whereby users compose messages with the forms and transmit the messages via facsimile, and whereupon reception, the messages and the encoded data is printed. Prior art email applications generally maintain a tree of versions of the email messages between users, the tree indicating the identities of the email messages. The prior art further teaches that the encoded data of the forms may comprise an identity of the form, and other information for indicating various executable functions associated with the paper. The prior art, however, does not teach faxing or transmitting such a form having a first identity encoded within it, and receiving, as the claimed recipient conferencing form, the image of the form, whereby the encoded identity of the recipient conferencing form is different from the original form, as is expressed in each of claims 1, 4, 27, and 30.

As each of claims 2-3, 5-26, 28-29, and 31-72 depend on claim 1, 4, 27, or 30, and include all of the limitation of claim 1, 4, 27, or 30, claims 2-3, 5-26, 28-29, and 31-72 are considered allowable for the reasons in which claims 1, 4, 27, and 30 are allowed.

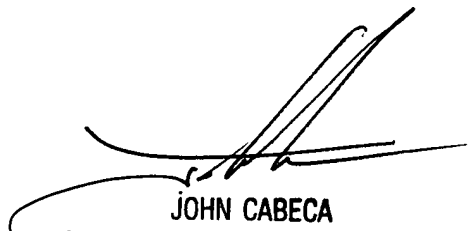

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
